For State Senator—Seventeenth District—
HAMILTON RICHARDSON, of Janesville.

SENATOR RICHARDSON.
The Republican Senatorial Convention, which assembled at the Court House this afternoon, re-nominated Hon. Hamilton Richardson for State Senator. We believe we express the sentiment of a very large majority of the voters of Rock county when we say the action of the Convention is wise. What the people need and desire, so far as a Senator is concerned, is a gentleman of personal influence, one who thoroughly understands Legislative business, who is acquainted with the character and management of our State institutions, of sound judgment, and well directed application. These qualifications belong to Mr. Richardson. Already he has served one term in the Senate, and at both sessions did a vast amount of solid work for the county and the State. Appreciating this fact, the Convention not only has honored him with a renomination, but tendered it to him by acclamation, an endorsement of which he may well feel proud.

THE DELAVAN TROUBLE.
The press of the State, and some of the inmates of the Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, continue to stir up the trouble which Principal De Motte, Steward Woodbury, and C. L. Williams have thrown that institution. It was supposed, and sincerely hoped, that the investigation ordered by Governor Smith, would result in putting an end to further scandalous reports concerning the Institute. But the public is mistaken and sorely disappointed. The report of the State Board of Charities, has been called a "white-washing report," and the action of the Board of Trustees in re-electing Mr. De Motte, and of retaining Woodbury even until the 15th instant, when the office of Steward will be abolished, has been severely condemned by a large majority of the press and the people. The recent letter of Miss Stillwell, formerly an inmate at Delavan, has added fuel to the flame. Taking all in all, the institution is under a dark cloud. No doubt things are not as bad as they seem. They have been greatly magnified in a heated discussion, and yet they are bad enough to severely damage the usefulness of the Institute. The State Board of Charities doubtless reported what they thought the evidence and surrounding circumstances warranted; and the Board of Trustees were firm and conscientious in the belief that Mr. De Motte should be re-elected, and that Woodbury should be dealt with gently. But this does not suppress public clamor nor arrest suspicion. The general sentiment is that a change should take place at once in the management of the Institute, that De Motte must give way to one who can win the confidence of the public, and against whom not the least suspicion will rest. The Delavan Institute can not afford to be robbed of usefulness and a good name on account of one or two officers, whom the people distrust, notwithstanding they may be very efficient teachers, and the prejudice against them largely unfounded. Therefore the sentiment seems to prevail in the Southern part of the State, that Mr. De Motte should be removed. It would be creditable to him if he would resign.

The report comes from Walworth county that the two delegates from that Senatorial district (Walworth and Kenosha) to the Congressional Convention are both from Walworth county. An error was made in calling the Kenosha caucuses, whereby they were held too late for the Senatorial Convention. Quarles and Timme, of Kenosha, hastened to Elkhorn, and after a long wrangle were admitted as delegates, but the county was not allowed one of the Senatorial delegates. This looks very suspicious and is certainly unprecedented. This of course is the work of Littlejohn and his men. We had hope that in this contest no underhanded course would be taken. Littlejohn has a right to be a candidate but has no right to resort to intrigue. Mr. Williams enters canvass clean handed, and so far as he or his friends are concerned, every step has been open and fair in the minutest particular. He will be renominated by the overwhelming sentiment of the people, so that unfair means on the part of Mr. Littlejohn will damage him, and not Mr. Williams.

The Congressional contest in the Freeport district has just closed, and has been one of the most remarkable ever witnessed in Illinois. Five hundred and seventeen ballots were taken, and finally Captain R. M. A. Hawk, of Carroll county, was nominated. Burdard, who contested for Congress five terms, and has done good service. It is hoped that because he was not recommended, he will not play the part of Julian and discover all at once that the Republican party is in its death struggle.

Some one should influence the Chicago Tribune to publish a Republican speech once in a while. Within a week it has printed in full Hendricks', Voorhees', Kearney's, and others delivered by inflated Democrats, but could not find room for that masterly effort and patriotic speech of the gallant General Logan. Inasmuch as the Tribune professes to be a Republican newspaper, a line or two now and then complimentary of the party, would hardly seem to be amiss. That the era of political stock jobbing should close, and hereafter the office seek the man and not the man seek the office. This is the seventh resolution of the Greenback platform, adopted at Elkhorn last week. It is rather remarkable that Mr. Parker, the candidate for Congress, should be the first one to put his heels on

WISCONSIN GOVERNORS.
Some Brief Biographical Sketches of the Men Who Have Sat in the Executive Chair.

We present to the readers of the Gazette brief biographical sketch of the Territorial and State Governors of Wisconsin, which we are assured will not prove uninteresting.

TERRITORIAL GOVERNORS.
Henry Dodge.
General Henry Dodge, was the first and the last of our Territorial Governors. He was born at Vincennes, Northwestern Territory, now Indiana, on the 13th of October, 1793. In 1808 he removed to the Territory of Missouri and became the Sheriff of Cape Girardeau county, and in 1812 he was chosen Captain of a mounted rifle company, and in the month of September of that year was appointed Major of the Louisiana Territorial militia. In 1814 he was made Lieutenant Colonel, and commanded an expedition up the Missouri river against the Indians. In 1827 he settled in Wisconsin, then a part of Michigan Territory, and located near Dodgeville, in Iowa county, after whom the village was named, where he was extensively engaged in mining. He took an active part in the Black Hawk war, and was promoted to Brigadier General. For the services he rendered the country in the contest with the Indians, he received from Congress a sword, and the thanks of the nation. When the Territory of Wisconsin was formed in 1836 he was appointed Governor by President Jackson, and held the office till 1841, when he was elected a delegate to Congress, a position he held till April 1845, when he was re-appointed Governor of the Territory, and continued the executive until May 29th, 1848, when Wisconsin became a State. In June, 1848, he was elected to the United States Senate, and on the 20th of January, 1851, he was elected for six years serving till 1857. He then returned to private life, and part of the time lived in Mineral Point and part of the time in Burlington, Iowa. He died in the latter place on the 19th of June, 1867, at the age of 85. An eulogy on General Dodge can be found in the report of the State Historical Society for 1868, page 123.

James D. Doty.
James Duane Doty, second Territorial Governor of Wisconsin, was born in Salem, Washington county, New York, in 1799. In 1818 he located at Detroit. He studied law and in 1819 he was admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of the Michigan Territory. In 1823 he was appointed one of the Judges of the Territory by President Monroe, and held the position till 1832. He located in Green Bay, and in 1834 was elected by the people West of the lake to the Legislative Council. In 1838 he was sent as a delegate to Congress and remained there till 1841, when President Tyler appointed him Governor of the Territory of Wisconsin, and served till 1845. He was a member of the first Constitutional Convention in 1846, was elected to Congress in 1848, and was re-elected in 1851. In 1861 President Lincoln appointed him Superintendent of Indian Affairs, and in 1863, he was given the Governorship of Utah. He died at Salt Lake City, on the 12th of June, 1865. An interesting sketch of Governor Doty will be found in the Report of the Historical Society for 1869, page 359.

Nathaniel P. Tallmadge.
Mr. Tallmadge was born in Catham, Columbia county, New York, on the 8th of February, 1795. He was graduated at Union College in 1815, and was admitted to the bar at Salt Lake City, on the 12th of June, 1815. He was elected to the New York Assembly in 1829, and served in the State Senate from 1830 to 1833, and was chosen United States Senator in 1833, and served till 1844, when he was appointed Governor of Wisconsin Territory by President Tyler, and held the office till April 30, 1845, when he was succeeded by General Dodge. He afterwards devoted his time to his profession. He removed to Battle Creek, Michigan, where he died Nov. 2, 1864. Many of his speeches were published in book form.

STATE GOVERNORS.
Nelson Dewey.
No one has yet been able to secure from Governor Dewey a biographical sketch. He has persistently refused to be interviewed by newspaper men, and never would respond to the call of any one for information regarding his early history. He came to Wisconsin in Territorial times, and in 1839 served in the Territorial House of Representatives, and was re-elected in 1843, '44 and '45. He was elected to the Council in 1843, '44, '45 and '46, and served in the Senate in 1854 and 1855. He was elected the first Governor of the State, and served from June 5th, 1848 to first of January, 1850. Since his service in the Senate he has been strictly a "private citizen," residing on his large farm in Grant county. His elegant residence, one of the finest in the county, was destroyed by fire in 1871.

Leonard J. Farwell.
Mr. Farwell was born at Watertown, New York, January 5th, 1819. At an early age he was apprenticed to a tinsmith, and worked at the trade till he was 19. He removed to Lockport, Ill., with a few tools and a small stock of goods, and in 1840 he settled in Milwaukee, which then had a population of about 3,000. Skill and industry gave him a handsome fortune in ten years, for by that time he was at the head of the largest wholesale house in the west. In 1851 he was nominated by the Whigs for Governor and was elected by 560 majority over Upham, and was the only Whig elected on the State ticket. The financial crisis of 1857 swept away the greater part of the fortune of Leonard Farwell, and soon thereafter he closed up his business. In 1863 President Lincoln appointed him assistant examiner in the patent office at Washington, and three months later, examiner of patents, a position he held seven years. He then went to Chicago, engaged in business, but the late war threw him into financial trouble. He shortly afterwards removed to Worth county, Missouri, where he now resides.

William A. Barstow.
This well known character in Wisconsin politics, was born in Windham county, Conn., on the 13th of September, 1813. He received his education at the common schools, and at 16 became a clerk in his brother's store at Norwich, Conn., where he remained till he was 20. In 1834 he went into business at Cleveland, and in 1839 he located at Prairieville, now Waukesha, and there erected a flouring mill. In 1849 he was elected Secretary of State by the Democrats, on the ticket with Governor Dewey. He was elected Governor in 1853, and again nominated in 1855, and the State Board of Censors declared him elected by 157 majority. The friends in the election of that year brought on the famous gubernatorial contest of Bashford vs. Barstow. On the 7th of January, 1856, Barstow was sworn in, but Coles Bashford, the Whig candidate, contested the election before the Supreme Court, and after a long and interesting fight, in which the best legal talent in the State was employed, Chief Justice Whiton gave the opinion of the court that there must be a judgment of ouster against Barstow, and on

THURMAN.
The Ohio Senator will open the Campaign in Ohio Next Tuesday.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Senator Thurman will open the campaign in Ohio for the Democrats next Tuesday at Hamilton. His speech, which is about two hours long, has been printed in pamphlet form, and is being distributed among the newspapers by his faithful henchman, John G. Thompson. It is devoted almost exclusively to the finances, and the Senator takes extreme radical grounds in favor of the greenback. He makes no allusion to the controversy over Tilden's position in regard to the electoral bill, but devotes a few moments "to the great fraud of history—when the Constitution was dragged in the mire, and Hayes was seated."

SILVER.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. Aug. 9.—The Nevada Bank has sold 1,200,000 ounces of silver to the government, delivered to the Mint today. The price paid is the London rate, with cable exchange, payable in standard dollars.

The "Hawkeye" Humorist's First "Pick-erel."

From the Burlington Hawkeye.
I landed my first pickered the first evening we were on the lake. I am not a skillful fisherman. I told the boys that I could do a little plain fishing, but I didn't want to be set down for anything with any kind of fluting, embroidery, knife-plaiting, or anything of that kind about it. I fished from the shore, by the side of a veteran fisher, Mr. A. K. Duple, of Thiensville. He knows every fish in the lake by name. He can tell by the movement of the line what kind of a fish is at your hook. Something ran away with my line.
"It's a pickered," shouted Mr. Duple, in intense excitement. "A big fellow. Take out your line," he yelled to the rest of them. "Give him plenty of room!" Play him," he shrieked at me. "Let him run! Keep your line taut! Don't give him an inch of slack! Look out! Don't let him do that again! Let him run! Now, bring him in this—Look out! Don't let him do that again!"
By this time I was so excited I was on the point of throwing down the pole and rushing into the lake, intending to run the fish down and kick it to death. I screamed to Mr. Duple:
"You take the pole and land him, I never can!"
He refused. He returned and hauled his own pole, lance fashion, into the woods.
"Here!" he shouted, running down the bank about twenty feet below me, stooping down and spreading out his arms. "Here! Now! Bring him in here through the shoal water! I'll get him! Careful, now! Careful! Steady! Ah!"
And up, flap, I had him on the shore. He was a beauty. A little sunfish, about 3½ inches long.

An Ex-Oleryman Convicted of Murder.
A peculiar murder trial has ended in California in the conviction of F. A. Sprague of the murder of T. W. More. The condemned man had been for about twenty years a Baptist minister. He left the pulpit for secular pursuits, and settled, with several families, in the Sespe district, Ventura county, upon land claimed by T. W. More, under a Spanish land grant. More, it had been decided again and again, had no right to the portion of the grant taken up by Sprague and others under the Homestead law, but he harassed the settlers to such an extent that they resolved upon his death. Their murderous resolution was well known, yet so obnoxious had More become that none of his neighbors warned him of impending danger. The plans were openly laid, and More was assassinated. Several of the principals were arrested, including Sprague, who was the first put upon trial, with the result above mentioned. More was a tyrannical, over-riding man in many respects, resembling Irish landlords of the worst type.

Clear the Way.
For the escape from the system of its waste and debris, which, if retained, would vitiate the bodily fluids and overthrow health. That important channel of exit, the bowels, may be kept permanently free from obstructions by using the non-gripping, gently acting and agreeable cathartic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which not only liberates impurities, but invigorates the lining of the intestinal canal when weakened by constipation or the unwise use of violent purgatives. The stomach, liver and urinary organs are likewise reinforced and aroused to healthful action by this beneficial tonic and corrective, and every organ, fibre, muscle and nerve experiences a share of its invigorating influence. Unobjectionable in flavor, a most genial and wholesome medicinal stimulant, and owing its efficacy to botanic sources exclusively, it is the remedy best adapted to household use on account of its safety, wide scope and speedy action. subscribedwly

Beyond the Reach of Human Skill.
Is the power to restore the hair to bald heads when the bulbs at the roots are destroyed by age or disease; but there are doubtless many persons becoming bald, whose hair by careful attention might be restored to its original luxuriance and beauty. Parker's Hair Balm is an elegant preparation, designed to meet the public want for a harmless hair dressing and restorative. It acts like magic, commencing at the very roots, removes dandruff and all humors from the scalp, and never fails to restore gray or faded hair to the original color, and the soft, rich and glossy appearance of youth. By its occasional use falling of the hair is immediately checked, and a luxuriant and beautiful growth of young hair induced. The exquisite perfume and the purity of its composition are highly appreciated, and as it is not a dye and does not stain the skin or clothing, it is a growing favorite of the toilet table everywhere. Buy a bottle from your druggist, A. J. Robert's, Janesville, Wis., and test its merits. jsydsawewillsep23

FARM NOTES.

Many farmers in western New York still raise large areas of pepermint, although the oil sells only for $1.50 per pound.

It is asserted that tomatoes as food for cows improve both the quantity and the quality of the milk, and give the cream and butter a rich golden color.

It is found that fifteen hundred and fifty pounds of potatoes are required, in cattle feeding, to form the same quantity of flesh that one hundred pounds of beans would do.

To get figs from thistles: Reduce one ton of thistles to 70 pounds of potash. Then take the cash and buy figs.—Courier Journal.

Estimates of the coming wheat crop in Michigan, despite the rains, fix it at 30,000,000 bushels, placing Michigan among the first wheat-raising districts of the country and the world.

The 23,000 flouring mills of the United States turn out annually 50,000,000 barrels of flour, 4,000,000 barrels of which are exported. The annual wages paid to employees amount to $20,000,000.

We may safely estimate the average cotton crop of the United States from 1870 to 1880 at 5,000,000 bales per annum, or for ten years, 50,000,000 bales, which at $30 per bale, makes the enormous sum of $2,500,000,000.

More than 5,000,000 cans of corn are now packed in Maine annually and sold in every part of the world, yielding a business to the State of about $1,150,000; and giving profitable employment to from 8,000 to 10,000 people during the packing season.

The story comes from Missouri of a farmer there who had wheat cut, threshed, ground, made into griddle cakes and biscuits and baked, all in four minutes and thirty-seven seconds. What a wonderful people the Americans are!

The railroads in the United States have in use 3,500,000 car wheels. Those on fast passenger trains are renewed every ten months; but freight cars use the same wheels sometimes every ten years. The average life of a wheel is 50,000 miles, and at that rate it takes 700,000 a year, at a cost less the old wheels, of $6,000,000.

Good authority asserts that one pound of beans will support life in action as long as four pounds of rice. Two pounds of beans will help to do more muscular work than three pounds of wheat. The reason why beans require stronger powers of digestion than wheat is that they contain casein instead of gluten.

Lean Cattle for Europe.

American Agriculturalist.

Good news for American stock breeders is the demand for live cattle by German and English farmers. Recently a ship load of western cattle was landed in Tonnung to be fattened on the rich pastures of Schleswig-Holstein. Relative prices of young stock there and in this country warrant the importation of these young, lean cattle for the purpose. This cargo, comprising eight hundred and twenty-two head, fifteen of horses and forty-six swine, besides some fat cattle, horses and swine for England, was purchased at Chicago, and was so well received by the German farmers that the vessel was at once sent back for another load. "The ship arrived in the harbor under the salute of canon and a display of flags, and hundreds of people lined the quay." There is also quite a demand in England for lean cattle and hogs for fattening, and in the embargo against the importation of live cattle at English ports, an exception is made in favor of those from America. This together with the increasing call for finely bred stock from this country for Europe, argues well for our agricultural interests. The more our attention is paid to stock raising, instead of such exclusive grain and other crop production, the better will be for our farmers. English agriculture dates its present advanced position from the beginning of heavy stocking of its farms and generous feeding, which added largely to the fertility of the soil, and caused a consequent increase in the yield of crops.

Any other company advertising a Mardi-Gras Carnival, not only cannot produce it, but stole the idea from the London. As a fitting contribution to the pleasure of all lovers of grand spectacles, the London offers the most gorgeous free Street Procession, which occurs daily, between 9 and 10 A. M., including over 300 people, 300 horses, and 50 Lilliputian ponies. The magnificent Tableau cars, Alligator, Whale and fancy chariots, brilliant costumes and gold-mounted harness, the ever popular Mardi-Gras Carnival, the amusing Mechanical Antoinette, 1,000 flags, banners and waving plumes, and an endless catalogue of sensational sights, worth coming hundreds of miles to witness, the whole grand display enhanced and

Two performances daily, at 2 and 7:30 p.m. Doors open one hour previous. To avoid the crowds on the grounds, purchase tickets at a slight advance the day of the exhibition, at King's Bookstore.

Seven Gold-Covered Chariots.

—Not a tramp is left in jail, to last seven of the flock being turned out to grass this morning. When asked whether they were going they said "going with the wind," and went off toward the west softly humming "we are seven."

—Little May Thomas of this city, won in her walk against Kerr in Monroe last Thursday evening, being at the close of the twenty-five miles one lap ahead of Kerr. Her time was 4 hours 30 minutes. Good enough for a nine-year-old.

—The Temple of Honor at its meeting last night arranged further for the reception of delegates. A special meeting will be held next Tuesday evening, at which every member is expected to be present, as some of the delegates will arrive then.

—Mrs. Mack was yesterday visited by her little children and by her mother. She completely broke down on seeing the little ones. Fred Dickerson seems as happy as a lord, and gaily sings tender love songs, the notes of which are wafted through Mrs. Mack's window to her ear.

—Mr. Lantry is still at the Stevens house and is prepared to furnish first-class literature, especially of a Catholic tone, to such as wish for it. They are prepared to furnish their subscribers with the books already ordered, and want them to be equally prepared to take them.

—William Barnum, of Bethel, Connecticut, has commenced the study of medicine in the office of Dr. S. S. Judd, in this city. Mr. Barnum is the son of one of the wealthiest men in that State, his father being a member of the largest hat manufacturing firm in the East—that of Benedict & Co. He is a young man of excellent habits, finely educated, of great industry, and broad common sense.

—A bad accident occurred near Orford last Wednesday. For the third time within a short period, Rev. J. C. Gifford's team ran away with him. He was thrown to the ground and badly injured, one of the horses stepping upon him and breaking his collar bone, and the wagon loaded with hay passing over him, breaking one rib, and otherwise seriously injuring him. It is thought, however, that he will recover.

—J. H. Lightbody, traveling agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Co., is in the city and has secured the services of C. E. Bowles, Esq., as agent of the Jacksonville branch. The company have changed their mode of doing business. Instead of selling their machines at wholesale, they are doing nothing but a general retail business. Mr. Bowles will employ four or five good canvassers who will wait on the people of this county, and will furnish all in want of a No. 1 Sewing Machine, the old reliable Singer.

—The picnic of the Concordia Society next Monday promises to be a highly enjoyable one. The Bower City Belle will leave at nine o'clock for South's grove, and will play back and forth all day. In the afternoon there will be concert music by the Bower City Band, and plenty of games. In the evening there will be a dance. The tickets for the round trip are only twenty cents. There will be an abundance of refreshments, and in fact, everything to make it one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season. A general invitation is extended to all.

—The examination of Fred Ohms charged with murdering his father has at last reached an end, and yesterday it was decided to hold him for trial. In his defense he made a strong effort to prove an alibi, but the Court deemed the evidence for the prosecution sufficient at least to warrant the holding of him for trial. There seems to be some doubt among many as to whether there will be a conviction in the higher court.

—The District Committee, through their Chairman, A. A. Jackson, reported the difficulties attending the just appointment of delegates in accordance with the instructions received at the last Convention, and on motion of Mr. E. F. Carpenter, the Committee was instructed to appoint the representation in the Assembly Convention on the basis of one delegate to every 500 inhabitants, or one for every fraction not less than 250, this being the same basis as that decided upon by the County Committee.

—The Committee accordingly reported the following, as the number of delegates to which each ward and town would be entitled in the next Convention, which report was unanimously adopted:

First Ward.....5
Second Ward.....4
Third Ward.....4
Fourth Ward.....4
Fifth Ward.....4
Town of Jacksonville.....2

Mr. A. A. Jackson moved that the Convention express its full and hearty endorsement of the address of the Republican State Committee. This motion also prevailed unanimously and enthusiastically. Adjournment was then taken.

We Do Not Wonder.

We do not wonder that housewives who have been accustomed to use Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extracts should turn in disgust from the trash often sold under the name of Flavoring Extracts, which stuff smells and tastes like turpentine. Dr. Price's Flavoring Extracts have the taste and odor of the fresh fruits.

erie and Dockrill's Parisian Circus. The arctic performance included all the leading features of the former entertainment, and, in addition, many novel and unique feats. Among them may be mentioned the juggling equestrian act, by Miss Pauline Lee; the comical bareback-riding monkey, and the reappearance of James Robinson, the bareback champion. Mr. Elise Dockrill was welcomed back to the scenes of her former triumphs with an enthusiasm that only such an accomplished artist can awaken. Her performances are marked by all the skill and grace which characterized them in her former all too brief engagement. Mr. Dockrill's single act with the trained horse "Ellington," drew round after round of applause. Altogether, the entertainment last night was a grand success. The menagerie contains a good collection of wild animals, and other, not less wonderful, though familiar beasts."
